Can I Get Legal Advice?

No. It is an unauthorized practice of law for librarians to give legal advice, which involves interpretations of the law and its application to specific facts.

Librarians Will...

- Assist you in locating legal materials in the library
- Instruct you on how to use the library's resources
- Suggest library materials on specific topics to help with research

For legal advice, please consult an attorney.

The San Diego Law Library has four locations that are open to everyone.

We offer classes and events to guide you through the legal process.

I lost my job and I couldn't pay my bills. I went to the Law Library where I learned about dealing with collection agencies.

Our landlord refused to give us back our security deposit. At the Law Library, we found the best remedy for our situation.

I just filed my Motion to Terminate Probation. The San Diego Law Library had a great packet to guide me through the process.
